The most famous vampire of all puts the bite on some lovely English lasses in this lavish retelling of the classic tale. The excruciatingly handsome Frank Langella recreates his Broadway triumph as the seductive count whose simple gaze can transfix the fair sex. Laurence Olivier co-stars as his nemesis. Director John Badham (Saturday Night Fever) provides plenty of cobwebs, bats and eerie locales. Adult language, violence. (R-1:49) September 28

More American Graffiti

The Greatest Scandals of the Century

What was the real story behind the Profumo affair involving British government officials and prostitution? And the Black Sox World Series bribery in 1919?
